

notice of this matter he was solemnly called and did not therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendant for the sum of one hundred and nine dollars and forty cents the penalty of the writ and the expenses incurred by them in this behalf spending and the defendant is ordered to pay the same to the plaintiff discharged by the payment of fifty five dollars and one cent and the said amount to be computed after the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the 16th day of September 1802 till payment in full

Verdict Drew Peter Simmons and Peggy his wife formerly Drew James Lundy and Pirellor his wife Against

James Drew administrator of Jeremiah Drew's Estate

This cause was this day decided by consent of parties heard on the bill and answer on consideration whereof it is ordered and ordered that Thomas Fitzhugh Humphrey, Emory Hardy Apprentice and Charles B. Nicholas or any three of them divide the slaves sale and the income as mentioned in the bill which was left to Sally Drew by her father Jeremiah Drew into four equal parts and assign one part to Peter Drew one to Peter Simmons and Peggy his wife and one to James Lundy and Pirellor his wife and the remaining fourth to James Drew the administrator and make reports thereof in order to a final decree -

Absent Robert Mabey & Gentlemen
Present Joseph Ruffin & Gentlemen

John Dorton plaintiff Against
James Reddick and Charity his wife and of William H. Baker deceased Defendants

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendants being solemnly called and not appearing and it appearing to the court that the defendants have had legal notice of this motion therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendants for two hundred and seven pounds ten 98