In Debt

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendants with an answer to his former plea saying that they cannot gain on the plaintiff's action nor but that they paid the debt in the declaration mentioned in manner and form as then the plaintiff hath complained. Therefore it is counseled by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendants Twenty three pounds eight shillings and ten pence and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended and the said Defendants in money &c. But this judgment except the costs is to be discharged by the payment of thirty six pounds shillings and five pence and interest thereon after the rate of Six per Centum per annum from the 1st day of January 1798 till paid —
