

William Washington and David Washington exors of George Washington. Plffs.
Against

In Case

William Hart esq. D. D. of said State. Def.

The defendant by his attorney comes and defends the face and injury to him so and says that his intestate did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained that there are debts of superior priority to the plaintiff claim that he hath fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate as administered by the former administrator that he hath no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge the debts of superior priority to this claim and all ^{that} he prays may be enquired of by the Court and the plaintiff doth so likewise to be

William Washington.

Plffs.

In Case

Against

William Hart esq. D. D. of said State. Def.

The defendant by his attorney comes and defends the face and injury to him so and says that his intestate did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained that there are debts of superior priority to the plaintiff claim that he hath fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate as administered by the former administrator that he hath no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge the debts of superior priority to this claim and all that he prays may be enquired of by the Court and the plaintiff doth so likewise to be