

William Barnes.

Plff.

In Case

Against

William Hart ad^r D. B. W of Lem^s Hart Def^t

The defendant by his attorney comes and defends the force and injury which he does and says that his intestate did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained that there are debts of superior equity to the plaintiff claim that he hath fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate and administered by the former administrator that he hath no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge the debts of superior equity to the claim and all this he prays may be inquired of by the Country and the plaintiff doth so likewise to to

Caro Powers

Plff

In Case

Against

William Hart administrator

D. B. W of Lem^s Hart dec^d

Def^t

The defendant by his attorney comes and defends the force and injury which he does and says that his intestate did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained that there are debts of superior equity to the plaintiff claim that he hath fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate and administered by the former administrator that he hath no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge the debts of superior equity to the claim and all this he prays may be inquired of by the Country and the plaintiff doth so likewise to to