

Robt. Reck
against

William Hart and D. B. N. of D. B. Hart Deft.

Plff

The defendant by his attorney comes to deny the force and injury where to and says that his intestate had no interest in the goods and chattels of the plaintiff but that the plaintiff hath complained that there were debts of superior and singular the goods and chattels and credits of his intestate administered by the former administrator that he has no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge of superior dignity to this claim and all this he prays may be enquired of by the Country & the plaintiff doth so likewise

Robt. Reck and Richard Reck of course of Adam Reck

Against

William Hart and D. B. N. of D. B. Hart Deft.

Plff

The defendant by his attorney comes to deny the force and injury where to and says that his intestate had no interest in the declarative mentioned in manner of form as against him the plaintiff hath complained and that he hath fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate administered by the former administrator

Abent William Blaw present Carr Bowers
Thomas Hunt for Hart and H. Adams

Against

James Witherspoon

Deft

This day came also with the plaintiff as above by the attorney who defended the force and injury