This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendant both drawing his former plea, saying he cannot gainsay the plaintiff's statement nor his debt with an affidavit in the declaration mentioned and in mer and form as against him the plaintiff's debt being therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recovers against the said defendant eight shillings eight pence and his costs by him about his suit in the behalf expended and the plaintiff in mercy so

But this judgment except the costs is to be charged by the party of nine pounds four shillings and six pence there is to be computed after the rate of 10 pence in the pound from the 20th day of July 1797 till paid
