that there are no debts of superior dignity to the plaintiff's claim that he hath not fully administered all and singular the goods chattels and credits of his intestate that there are assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge all other debts and they do assent the plaintiff's damages occasioned thereby to be one penny therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant forty one pounds fourteen shillings and five pence & the cost by them about their suit in this behalf expensed to be paid of the proper goods and chattels ^{of Henry Taylor} at the time of his death in the hands of Joshua Glauz if so much he hath to be admitted if not the cost to be made of the said Joshua Glauz own proper good and chattels and the costs in Mercers

But this judgment except the cost is to be discharged the payment of twenty pounds seventeen shillings and five pence and interest thereon to be computed after the rate of 5% per annum from the 16th of May 1800 till payment
