Mary Johnson widow David Johnson dec'd Deft

This day came the parties by their attorney and the persons appointed by a former decree of this court this day made their report in the following words to wit) In presence of the annuitants viz John de Villiers Pauler and Robert de Villiers, three of the commissioners chosen and have selected a foreman and set apart to Mary Johnson as her dower in the lands of which David Johnson her husband died seised and possessed three acres of land bounded as follows. Beginning at a black oak a corner standing in a branch in James Paulers line thence across the said branch running near the house to a maple a corner, thence S 10° Eastwardly through the orchard to a sweet gum standing in the top of a branch thence up the said branch to a poplar in said Paulers line thence along said James Paulers line to a light wood stump a corner in James Paulers line thence along said Paulers line to the first station; We have also made sale of the remaining two thirds of the said lands, of which James Pauler is now the purchaser for the sum of one thousand and twenty pounds two shillings which we have distributed as by the said order we are directed, Given under our hands this 12th March 1804 John de Villiers Pauler Robert de Villiers

Whereupon it is decreed and ordered that the report aforesaid be made the decree of this court and be firm stable and binding between the parties and that the cost be equally borne among them

On the motion of Simon Ervill for leave to keep a tavern at his house near the Cross Keys the same is granted him on his giving bonds securing whereupon the said Simon Ervill with his security give the said and acknowledge their bond in the penalty of one thousand and fifty pounds for the said Simon Ervill keeping the said ordinary according to Law
