In Case

The defendant by his attorney comes in and defends the force and effect where he says that he did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained and pleads an act of assumpsit entitled "an act for the limitation of actions" &c and that he prays may be enquired of by the country and the plaintiff wishes so to have it and thereupon came also a jury to wit, Thomas Standley John Vaughan John Woolfson John Moore John Foster Shadrach Boykin Richard Vick Simmons Britts James Douglas and Jesse Millsford who being elected tried and gave the verdict to sprink upon the force joined upon their oath to say that the defendant did not assume upon himself in manner and form as against him plaintiff hath complained and that the plaintiff's account does come within the Statute of Limitations Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff take nothing -- for his false clamour and go thereof he is without day & he is to pay to him the costs of the defendant incurred against the said plaintiff his costs by him without his expense in this behalf expended
