In Debt

David Spencer and Robt. Caughtry. Dfts

This day came the parties by their attorneys and thereupon came also a jury to wit, Thomas Standley Richard Vick James Magoz Patrick Prout James Washington Holliday Kiddle John Crocker Henry Remonding John Moore James Mox Washington Henry Archibald and Charles Wellsford who being sworn tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the fore joined upon their oath to say that the defendants have not paid the debt in the declaration mentioned and they assessed the plainiff damages by reason thereof to one pound therefore it is considered by the court that the plainiff recover against the said defendants thirty four pounds ten shillings and three pence by them in their behalf expended and the said defendants in Moxey do do

But this judgment except the sum is to be discharged by the payment of sixteen pounds five shillings and interest thereon to be computed after the rate of 6 p. centum p. annum from the day of 1861
