The defendant by his attorney comes in and withdraws his former pleas of full payment of debts of superior dignity as a plea in law and thereupon came also a jury to try upon upon the plea of payment of by intestate to Wth John Ordlow-born Robert William Davis John Porter Permeah Cobb Jth Douglas Henry Parker Joseph Harrison James Wilkinson William Newlands Benjamin Cobb and Charles Gordon who being sworn to do and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined upon the oath as say that the defendant's intestate has not paid the debt in the declaration mentioned in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained and they do assent the plaintiff's damages by reason thereof to one penny therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant seventy three pounds seven shillings and four pence in the debt in the declaration mentioned and their cost by them in this behalf expended to be paid of the goods and chattels of the said William Hart at the time of his death in the hands of William Hart to be administered if so much he hath if not the full to be made of the proper goods and chattels of the said William to be in discharge But this judgment except the fact is to be discharged by the party of thirty six pounds thirteen shillings and eight pence and interest thereon to be computed after the rate of 5% per annum from the 1st day of November 1796 till payment
