

about to remove himself or so abscond that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him for a debt due the said Robert Mading. whereupon this day came the plaintiff who proved his demand to be just, and it appearing by the affidavit of John Barnes that James being the garnisher in this suit acknowledged that he had a sufficiency in his hands to satisfy and pay the plaintiffs demand, therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant thereby two pounds seven shillings and three pence and his costs by him in this behalf expended, and it is ordered that the said garnisher pay to the plaintiff the foregoing judgment and costs

And as Mr. Cammer a administrator De bonis non of William Commins is cited for the benefit of Robert Mading having obtained an attachment against the estate of John Rogers at the time of his death in the hands of Isaac McCollan to be administrator, who hath privately removed himself or so abscond that the ordinary process of the law cannot be served upon him. This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing by the oath of John Barnes that James being the garnisher acknowledged that he had a sufficiency in his hands to satisfy and pay the plaintiffs demand and therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant six pounds and three shillings from the 25th day December 1796 till payment and his costs by him in this behalf expended, and it is ordered that the said garnisher discharge the foregoing judgment & costs

Ordered that Brittain Bryant Wilson Pope William Whitlock and George B. Thoms or any three of them being first sworn before a justice of the peace for the county appear on sundry many the slaves of any and personal estate of William Brown and was ordered the appointment is the Court

about Henry Briggs point Nottingham
On the motion of Henry Briggs who made oath according to law for administration on the estate of Oliver Andrews and the same is granted him on giving bond and security whereupon the said Henry Briggs with Robert Goodridge and William Briggs his son were admitted into and sworn as judges thereof in the presence of the said three and as such for the true and faithful administration on the estate of the said deceased