

for the defendant that in case he should be lost in the action at the cost of the Plaintiff that he should satisfy and pay the Expenses of the Court or answer his body to prison in discharge thereof & that the said Charles Bryant will do it for him; whereupon the said Charles Bryant delivered up the body of the Defendant unto the custody of the Sheriff.

William Boyker

Plaintiff

Against

In Debt

Anthony Andrews

Defendant

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney, and the defendant in his own proper person, confessing the plaintiff's debt to be just and that he did credit the Debt in the declaration mentioned as against them the plaintiff hath complained, therefore it is ordered that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the sum of Eighteen pounds seventeen shillings and Eight pence and Interest at 4% Centum to Annam from the 1st day of January 1806 till payment and his Cost him about his suit in this behalf expended and the Debt in Money &c.

Memorandum This judgment is stayed till order thereon.

Sam Beav was set to the bar by the Sheriff of the County and Charles met having on the 1st of August taken out of Samuel's salary money drawn three shillings and four half pence, to which he pleads not guilty. The witnesses Necognizant appeared and were sworn and examined touching the pence, and there came also a jury (6 men) Henry Davis, Jacob Turner, William Elworthy, James May, Jr.
Mike Griffin, William Wells, Henry Porter, Solomon Green Benjamin Long, Elisha Broadsham, Elijah Hamlett and