In case against Edwards W. Taylor vs. Henry Adams

The defendant by his attorney came and depnd the first and saying when he had said that his Master did not appear upon himself in court and from against him the plff had complained that he had fully examined all and singular the good charter and estate of the said that he had no appts in his hands more than sufficient to discharge debts deposits & equity debts claims, and that he says may be required of by the County and the plff did in likewise, and in the party being at issue, the jury came a jury returned Verdict Verdict, Thomas D. Hunt Thomas D. Hunt John D. Hunt Allen D. Hunt Henry D. Hunt
John D. Hunt John D. Hunt John D. Hunt Whom they then and sworn the truth to speak upon the above said then saying so, that the defendant did not appear upon himself in the declaration mentioned, but that the master had fully examined all the assets of Henry Adams &c. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plff have judgment upon the same when appts & costs but by him about his suit in this behalf depends and the Defendant in Henry &c
