deposits the facts and was sworn to and says that his testator did not appear upon his oath in manuscript form as against him the plaintiff complains of and pleads and that of apparently entitled and for the limitation of facts and that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiff claim and that he both fully administered all the goods chattels and effects of his testator and that he hath no assets in his hands more than sufficient to discharge debts of superior dignity to the claim and that he prays every be enjoined of by the court and the plaintiff doth so take notice and thereupon after saying (and) John White John Britton Harrell Reuben David Washington John Adams Joseph Henry Thomas and others James Douglas John Douglas Henry Douglas James Douglas and Thomas Douglas and others do hereby declare that and avouch the same facts upon the facts and upon their oath do say that the Defendant did appear upon his oath in manuscript and for as against him the plaintiff both complains. And that the defendant hath fully administered all and disposed the goods chattels and effects of the estate of Henry Adams dec'd.
