

Samuel Pond, Daniel Pond, and Polly Pond Juniors, David Nancy Pond and William Pond, by William Willson their next friend Against Robert Mager and Nancy his wife Denny Pond Samuel Pond and Polly Pond

Defendants

In Chancery

The Court appointed to sell the land, which Richard Pond dec'd devised to his son William Pond in fee simple by his last will and Testament. This day made them report in the following words, to wit. Pursuant to the within Decree and the Subscribers do report that we have sold the land therein mentioned on the 13 of June 1803 for the sum of one hundred and Sixty pounds one Shilling and have divided the same among the said heir agreeable to the said Will Then under our hands this 10 day of May 1803 Charles Briggs William Briggs Henry Briggs, who sayeth it is ordered that the report aforesaid be made a firm stable and binding between the parties and that the Cost be equally borne among them

An Indenture of bargain and Sale between Stephen and his wife of the one parts and Stephen of the other parts, was acknowledged by the husband & continued for the wife

An Indenture of bargain and Sale between William Briggs Mary Briggs and Charles Briggs commissioners appointed by the Court of Chancery to make sales of William Pond land of the one parts and Samuel Pond of the other parts, proved by the oaths of it attested Pierce and Dennis Pond two of the witnesses thereto and ordered to be continued

The last will and Testament of Mark Nicholas dec'd was proved and cont'd by Seth Nicholas the executor thereof named proved by the oaths of Shadrach Dwyer John Nicholas and William Nicholas the witnesses thereto and ordered to be read &c. And on the return of the said Seth Nicholas who made oath according to the said certificate is granted him for obtaining a proper conveyance in due form in his giving bond and security. Whereupon the said Seth Nicholas with others