In Debt

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and the defendant in his own proper person confessed the plaintiff's action to be just and that he with rose the debt in the declaration mentioned in manner and form as against him the plaintiff hath complained. Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant.

I John Carter who was called to appear at this court accordingly appeared in discharge of recognizance and was immediately set to the bar by the sheriff of this county and charged with having on the day of appeal in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred five several pieces of linen which had been stolen from Matthew Barrett's measure and taken into his possession knowing the same to have been stolen contrary to law and being asked how of the said measure he would acquit himself saying that of the measure and in manner and form aforesaid imposed or charged against him he is not guilty and for this trial puts himself upon God and his Country therefore let a jury through come and the jurors of the jury aforesaid empanelled being called came that to a jury then came John Carter
