

in this case, stating that the same was a plea in abatement and ought to have been so in open court, which position was opposed by the defendant's attorney as being a good plea in law and unless in open court, the opinion of the Court being there better, they decided that the defendant's plea of non absconit should be quashed, from which opinion of the Court the defendant excepted, and filed his bill of exceptions which were signed & sealed by Court, and the cause is continued to be argued on the

Bailey Bryant.

Against

Oliver Cray.

Def.

Def.

In Debt

The defendant by his attorney comes and appears the force and injury when and where he ought and says that he hath paid the debt in the declaration and claims that his proofs may be required of by the Country and the plaintiff with a libelous

Lacy Williamson.

Against

John Cricklow Esq of William Cricklow.

Def.

Def.

In Debt

The defendant by his attorney comes and appears the force and injury when and where he ought and says that his Porters hath paid the debt in the declaration and claims that his proofs may be required of by the Country and the plaintiff with a libelous

Elizabeth Griffin.

Against

John Brown.

Def.

Def.

In Case

The defendant by his attorney comes and appears the force and injury when and where he ought and says that the plaintiff ought not to have a remedy but his action against him because he says that is no valid ground of the tort as against him she hath complained and that his proofs may be required of by the Country and the plaintiff with a libelous and the cause is continued to be argued on the motion of the defendant by his attorney (the plaintiff's attorney being present) a summons is issued to him to take the deposition of John D. Brown, De. Nov. 1890.