Troppe's Deft & Battery

The defendant by his attorney came and signed the plea and saying what was as to the facts and words, and whatever that is against the peace and dignity the Commonwealth and also the remaining and meaning in the declaration mentions the same Sayer says, that is not guilty thereof: and of this he puts himself on the country: and the said Mills thereof likewise he was as to the residue of the trespass and assault of Sayer above by him the said Sayer supposed to be done the same Sayer says, that the said Mills ought not to have remained in, but I action thereof against him, because he says that the said Mills at the same time when the residue of the trespass of Sayer is above supposed to be done, with force and arms be on him the said Sayer as made an assault on him the said Sayer then and that, as well as have, beat, wounded, and abuse, unless he the said Sayer had then and there immediately defended himself against the said Mills, and so that the said Sayer did then and there defend himself against the said Mills, and so that the same Sayer says, that if any damage or mischief then and there happened to the said Mills, it was from proper assault of him the said Mills on him the said Sayer and in the defence of him the said Sayer: and that the same Sayer
