

Jesse Godwin appeared in discharge of his recognizance entered into yesterday for his appearance this day and on charges of exhibiting & holding at Barre bank in this county. And the defendant moves the Court that the proceedings has been illegally had and that the same be quashed, & the opinion of the Court being taken they decide that this Court in the present proceedings have not recognizance thereof inasmuch as the same had not been done according to the mode prescribed by law. Therefore it is ordered that the said Jesse Godwin be discharged & they are also of opinion that no further proceedings should be had against him in this Court on the above said.
