

127

John Williams is appointed a constable in this County for the upper district of Newway Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with John Branch and Henry Parker his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

Edward W Branch is appointed a constable in this County for the upper district of Newway Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with Edward Branch and David Biele his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

About Benjamin Cobb, and George B Cobb Constables

William Joyner is appointed a constable in this County for the lower district in Newway Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with John Branch and Matthew Mountford his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

John Branch is appointed a constable in this County for the lower district in Newway Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with William Joyner and Matthew Mountford his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

William J Smith is appointed a constable in this County for the upper district in Smiths Creek Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with David Newman and John Mountford his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

William Capell is appointed a constable in this County for the upper district in Smiths Creek Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with John Williams and John Branch his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

About Laurence Cobb Constable

John B Biele is appointed a constable in this County for the upper district in Smiths Creek Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with Clement Rockwell and James Bishop his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs

James Bishop is appointed a constable in this County for the lower district in Smiths Creek Parish for the term of two years and whereupon he took the oath of fidelity and of office and with Clement Rockwell and John B Biele his securities entered into and acknowledged a bond in the penalty of fifteen hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs