

174

On the motion of Simon Mather, administrator of William Beale dec'd. It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on one hundred and fifty three acres of land at being paid a total of two hundred and fifty acres which was returned in the name of John Beane for the year 1787. Also on five hundred and fifty one acres of land a part of a tract of three hundred and eighty two acres returned in the name of James Beane for the year 1795. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Nathaniel Beane. It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on all the lands returned in the name of John Beane for the year payment of the taxes above. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of John Beale, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on eighty three acres of land which was returned in his name for the year 1806. (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Matthew Williams. It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on one hundred and twenty five acres of land which was returned in his name for the year 1802. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of William Phillips, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on three hundred and fifty acres of land which was returned in the name of Philip Persons for the years 1793, 1797, 1798 and 1799. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Henry Cherry, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on twenty acres of land returned in his name for the year 1806. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of David Mendenhall. It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on three hundred and forty five acres of land which was returned in the name of Timothy Mendenhall for the years 1794, 1795, 1796, 1798 and 1799. Also on three hundred acres of land returned in the name of Rebecca Persons for the year 1805. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Robert Mendenhall. It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on one hundred and twenty five acres of land which was returned in the name of John Mendenhall for the year 1797. (The attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

About George Bailey Present Rec'd. George Bush Justice