

181

On the motion of John Henderson, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on thirty acres of land which were returned in the name of William Henderson for the years 1805 and 1806 also on thirty eight acres of land returned for the year 1798 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of A. Jones, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on one thousand one hundred and thirty two acres of land which was returned in this name for the year 1804 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Francis Leventy, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on one hundred and twenty two acres of land which was returned in the name of Benjamin Leventy for the year 1806 also on six acres and one of one acre of land which was returned in the year 1805 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

Thomas D. Allen is appointed Surveyor of the road in the name of William Jordan who is discharged and it is ordered that the road between the two who usually make them as attend and assist the said Surveyor in repairing the said road when required

About Benjamin D. Adams, Attorney General before the Court

On the motion of James Lee, Esquire to William Smith, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on all the land returned in the name of William Smith and William Smith for the year 1805 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of James Lee, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on three hundred and thirty two acres of land which is returned in the name of William Lee for the year 1798 also on three hundred and thirty two acres of land returned in the name of James Chaffell for the year 1797 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

About Benjamin Griffin Pascoe, James Lee, Attorney General before the Court

On the motion of John H. Smith, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on twenty two acres of land returned in the name of John H. Smith for the years 1807 and 1808 (The Attorney for the Commonwealth being present)

On the motion of Patrick B. Lee, It is ordered that he be exonerated from the payment of the taxes and damages on thirty eight acres and one third of an acre of land which was part of a tract of one hundred and twenty two acres which was returned in the name of John B. Lee for the year 1798 also on