This day came the parties by their Attorneys and on the motion of the Plt by his Attorney for a continuance in this Cause which motion was opposed by the Defendant by his Attorney. The Court after hearing the parties remanded the said motion from which opinion of the Court the Plaintiff by his Attorney accepted and filed his bill of exceptions which were signed and sealed by the Court (and thereupon came a Jury to wit: James Barrett, George T. Williams, Nathan A. Linnam, Samuel Bennett, Elijah Long, Thomas Linnam, Henry Melch, John Williamson, William H. Daughton, Kingston Saylor, Samuel Pond and William Lane, who being sworn took and sworn the oath to speak, being let into Court as ordered in the word following to wit: We the Jury find for the Defendant. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the Plaintiff take nothing by his bill but for his later claim he in mercy go and that the Defendant go thereof without any and recover against the Plaintiff his costs by him ^{in his opinion} in this behalf expended from which Judgment of the Court the Plaintiff prayed an appeal to the next Superior Court to be holden and for the same in the Court of Appeal next on his giving bond with approved security in the penalty of fifty dollars conditioned as the law directs, which is accordingly done —
