

The adventure of bargain and sale between Charles Gray and Lydia B his wife of the one part and Isaac M. Gray of the other part are acknowledged in favor of the said Charles Gray and wife the having been first formally examined as the law directs, and are to be recorded.

[illegible]

Jacob Johnson of this County, but saying, Indistinctly proposing of a small estate, on which no free or well administered. His answer that the Sheriff of this County take the same, and his hands and dispose thereof as the Law directs, and return an account thereof to the Court.

Upon the petition of Samuel B. Linn, setting forth that he wishes a road from the Petersburg road near Brunswick Mills over the bridge Swamp through John Maggart's plantation to the road on the east side of the swamp, to the spring. It is shown that Daniel Bull, John Linn, and William Bridge being first sworn before a Justice for that purpose, do view the lands through which the said road is proposed to be opened and report to the next court the convenience and inconvenience that will result with to Brunswick, as the Publick If the said road shall be opened as proposed.