

354

at a bend in a small branch a corner of Lot No 485 and adjoining the lands of Samuel Wood are taken thence down the branch the various lines through to Newgate Spring, thence along Beaufortian W. Johnston line to bridge road, thence along the road to a great fence, thence along Johnston's and Brooks line to Anthony Wood's line formerly blank & Whitehead, thence along the east Wood's line to a large dead fence a corner of the said Wood's and Whitehead's former land, thence along Johnston's line to Jeffords road, then along a line of new meadow trees to back lot 145 plot to the beginning.

Lot 145 drawn by Francis Day containing one hundred and fifty six acres beginning at a small bend on west side of Jeffords road, thence along a dividing line between Whitehead's former and the said Francis Day to a corner in the branch called Opie, thence along that branch the said line being the to a corner of old Johnson's land, thence along a line of marked trees, thence Day to Johnson's estate and lot 146 one, to a rock at Calforn's nose, thence southward a due north, in new cornfield, thence along said line to a new corner made in Lot Number 182, starting in a small brook, thence South 25 West along the dividing line of lots 182 & 183 to a fence a new corner made in Lot Number 12-4 & 18 thence along a dividing line of lots numbers 183, South 29 West a due east bearing the proportionable part of all the lands of his deceased father exclusive of the over weight of one land, after receiving nine dollars from lot number 13 drawn by Henry Turner in right of his wife Martha E. Turner formerly Martha E. Day, Lot No 20 drawn by Richard B. Day containing one hundred and forty acres beginning at a new corner in lot number 182 in a small branch in Joseph Barron's line, thence down the said branch the various courses thereof to a point at corner of John Barron, thence along Barron's line to improve a new corner made in lot number 24, thence along the dividing line of lots 2-4 to a fence a new corner in lot number 12-4 & 18 thence Day along the dividing line of lots numbers 182, North 25 East to the first Station, thence his proportionable part of his father's estate exclusive of the corner right line after receiving nine dollars from lot number 182 drawn by Henry Turner in right of his wife Martha E. Turner formerly Martha E. Day, Lot Number 13 drawn by Henry Turner in right of his wife Martha E. Turner formerly Martha E. Day containing one hundred and twenty one acre, beginning at a fence Day road, a corner of John Barron, thence along the said line to a to John Day's line at a hickey in the margin of an old field thence along Day's line to a black larch just west of the said plot branch a corner of Anthony Wood's line also a new corner of lot Number 2-4 thence along the dividing line of lots one 876 North 25 East to the first Station, thence his proportionable part of the said estate lands exclusive of the corner right after paying forty six dollars to lots numbers 12-4 & 18, Lot Number 13 drawn by John E. Day, containing one hundred and twenty one acre, Beginning at a black larch a new corner made in lots 12-4 & 18 and Anthony Wood's line, thence along Anthony Wood's line to a fence a corner of Samuel Wood's estate line thence along the estate line to a new corner made in lots No 4 & 18 and the Dover line thence along the dividing line of lots 12-4 & 18 North 25 East to a fence a new corner made in lots numbers 12-4 & 18 thence along the dividing line of lots number 2-4 to a fence a new corner made in lots number 2-4 in John Barron's line, thence along Barron's line to a black larch a corner of lots No 2-4 and John Barron's line thence along the dividing line of lots