

367

James Bates an infant brother of Matthew Bates and by Samuel Turner his guardian and next friend. . . .

Peggy Belle, infant sister of Matthew Dutton deceased by Stephen Landford & Sons Executors ----- Defendant

Ch. Cheney

The same was then, dictated by the consent of the parties and the agent of the bank and was read upon the table, and the answer of the respondent, was then signed by himself, manager of the bank, with signature over and under that of Benjamin B. Washburn, James B. Apple, Frederick Wells and William D. Moore, a copy thereof as well as public auction, on or about the twelfth month, next, for the sum of fifteen dollars to be paid in cash for the purposes of redeeming the stock of the bank, the land required of said bank, on the banks of Longsight, containing by estimate fifty acres of which Elizabeth Bates had a share in the said bank, giving at least fifteen days previous notice of the time and place of sale, and leaving the same to the purchaser, from whom they are to require ten bonds with official security, each for one moiety of the purchase money left after the payment of the above said sum of fifteen dollars, that one of the said bonds be ordered by all the above said Samuel Turner, guardian of the bank, James B. Washburn, James B. Apple, Frederick Wells and William D. Moore, guardian of the respondent Peggy Bates. Come that the said Benjamin B. Washburn make a report of the aforesaid and bring in this behalf to the court, on or before a fixed time and

Noel Marshall

20/1

Sharon R.

Mr. } upon a motion to receive money paid D. } as Security to

This day came she packed by train, and appearing to the state action of the court that she refused to take, but legal notice of her motion, who to the being fully heard by himself. Moreover for reasons appearing to the court. His Office that the next motion be overruled.

The Commerce caters

asf

Mr. James Cox, Joseph Day, Robert Adams and Benjamin Dyer upon an distribution

This day came the Parties by their attorneys, and the defendant by their counsel submitted the official file in this cause, and upon the calling of the name before the jury was sworn the said Jdft by their counsel moved the Court to quash the indictment for the following reasons to wit: That the against and battery themselves charge to have been committees, and not alleged to have been committees, within the jurisdiction of the Court but the Court overrules the said motion and refers it to quash the said indictment for the reason above mentioned. ^{about Lawrence look} Present Benjamin Dwyer, Esq And thereupon came a Jury to wit: Charles B. Gay, Robert H. Thompson, Lewis H. Vaughan Arthur A. Cook, Henry S. Sparrow, Giles Barwell, William Brown, Samuel Wallace, William Baptist, Allen L. Smith, Horace H. Mills and Jonathan W. W. who being sworn and sworn the truth to speak, The defendant by their attorneys moved the Court to quash the indictment for the reason above said, and the Court still refusing to quash the said indictment for the reason above said, and thereupon the ^{jury} foreman brought and read a verdict in the manner as follows following to wit: "We do say just this Defendant not guilty. Therefore it is recommended by the Court the Dft take nothing, but for his former blame be no paying it and that the witness and go, though without say and answer against Nathaniel Nathan the prosecutor in this cause, then take by them in this behalf of peace, and the said Defendant in prayer. Ps