vs
Willie M. Parker

Plt
Defd

Therefore the day before the parties by their attorneys and upon the calling of the bailed and before the Jury were sworn the Defendant by his attorney made the bailed to answer the Plaintiff to give security for the debt in the suit the price that the Plt had been legal notice of this motion at last Sept. says and it also appearing to the court that the said Plt is not an inhabitant of this Commonwealth at this time but was an inhabitant at the time of the institution of this suit which motion being opposed by the Plaintiff by his attorney The Court after hearing the Parties by themselves and after due deliberation had thereon and advised in private the said motion is overruled. From which opinion of the court the Defendant by his attorney excepted and thereupon drew up and presented his bill of exceptions to the court which were signed and sealed by the court and came to be filed with the clerk thereof came at day to wit. Thomas Williams, Elizabeth Terry, Sarah Elly, Richard Dacus, Sarah Stephens, William Stephens, Whittier, Mrs. Lewis, Robert Kenny, John, John Kewell, James McElhenny and Henry Johnson who being clerks took and sworn the oath to take upon the issue joined, and the Plaintiff moved the court to instruct the Jury, that the purchaser of personal property bona fide, without notice of another title, has the legal title to the same, which motion was opposed by the Defendant by his attorney, thereupon the court decided that the law is now in favor of the Plt from which opinion of the court the Defendant by his attorney excepted and drew up and presented his bill of exceptions to the court which were signed and sealed by the court and came to be filed in the bailed, and the Jury brought into court a verdict in the mode and figures following to wit: We the Jury find for the Plaintiff and Costs his damages to be $200.00 Therefore it is concluded by the court that the Plt moves against the Defendant the damages above as no force appeared against and his debt by him about his suit in the behalf of the said Defendant and the said Defendant may be taken
