

William P. Morgan
agt

Richard Vick

Pl

In debt

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the defendant says that he cannot go away the Plaintiff's attorney says that the same is just therefore it is here said by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendant Ninety nine Dollars and fifty four cents the bill in the declaration matches with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the nineteenth day of January 1812 until the time of payment and he binds him about his debt in this behalf expenses and the said Defendant in money &c

Jacob Dawson Sheriff and administrator of John P. Westbrook &c

agt

Joseph Turner

Pl

In case

The defendant being dead on the motion of the Plt by his attorney a decree is awarded him against William Bowtell and his wife administrators of the said Defendant, returnable here at September Court next

John Hick and Thomas Hudson merchants and Partners acting and trading under the firm and style of Art. Hick &c

agt

Pl

In case

Charles Cook

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the defendant says that he cannot go away the Plaintiff's attorney says that the same is just therefore it is here said by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendant Ninety nine Dollars and fifty four cents the bill in the declaration matches with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the nineteenth day of January 1812 until the time of payment and he binds him about his debt in this behalf expenses and the said Defendant in money &c

Edward Leffingwell and Mary his wife late Mary Ann Leffingwell by order of Elizabeth Gray deceased

agt

Thomas Butler Surviving partner of Joseph Dawson deceased

Pl

In debt

and himself who was partner of Edward William deceased

agt

Dumfries

Pl

In case

By consent of the Parties by their attorneys it is ordered that the Suit be