

Leaves P. Hart Director of William Hart second Lieutenant, Regt.

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the defendant Tack that he cannot gain say the Plaintiff action nor but that the same be Just, Therefore He Pounds the cell in the declaration mentioned and has taken by her about her Just in this behalf-expence, to be twice of the goods and chattels of the defendant in the hands of the defendant if so much thing he hath in his hand to be administered But if not then the costs aforesaid to be borne of his own proper goods and chattels and the said Defendant no money &c But This Judgment is to be discharge as by the Payment of Eleven Pound, Ten Shillings with Interest thereon to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the Twenty fifth day of December 1813, until the time of Payment and the costs

Schw. Margharb surviving partner of Ruffin and Margharb late merchants and Patrick Thomas Webster Jew and Heirs of Joseph Ruffin do hereby agree by Henry Parker

Levir P. Hart Tutor of William Hart deceased

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and thereupon came a Jury to wit: Joseph May, Henry Mellet, Branch M. Bevell, James Foster, Richard Barden, Henry Schwab, William Lawrence, John Sanford, John Ross, William S. Daugherty, Benjamin Snyder and Benjamin B. Lippard, who being elected true and lawful men to inquire upon the oaths sworn brought into Court a veridict in the matter following to wit: "We the Jury find for the Plaintiff the bill in the declaration mentioned and of his damage to one Cent." There was evidence by the Court that the bill received against the Defendant Twenty two dollars with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the Thirtieth day of October 1804 until the time of Payment, the bill upon said tax when made his damage of one penny of one cent and he took by him about this fact in this behalf in favor of himself of one cent and he took by him about this fact in this behalf in favor of the Defendant of the goods and chattels of the Defendant in the house of the Defendant, if so much thereof he hath in his hands to be converted: But if not then the loss upon said to be three of the above paper goods and chattels and because Defendant has no money. 95

Frederick Loring

John Lichlow

John Luskow

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the Defendant swears that he cannot gain say the Plaintiff's action; nor that that the same is Just & Proper. He swears by the Court that the Plaintiff recover as much the Defendant fears himself as ninety eight dollars and eight cents the debt in the declaration mentioned and his costs by him about his Suit and the behalf expended and the said Defendant in money &c. But this Judgment is to be in charge by the Payment of Two hundred and forty nine dollars and thirty cents with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the Twenty fourth day of December One thousand eight hundred and eleven until the time of payment and the costs subject to the following