Defendant
Plaintiff

In Debt

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the referees being present his plea of debt of Superior dignity and thereupon came a Jury to wit, Alexander Merrick, Joseph Shapard, Branch M. Burt, James Foster, Henry Melch, Henry B. Vaughan, John R. Chapman, William R. Daugherty, Henry Johnson, Matthew Calvert, James Pierce and Henry Bailey who being sworn, upon the oath sworn upon the other Plea of Payment, brought into Court a verdict in the words and figures following to wit, "We the Jury find for the Plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and of his damages to one Cent." Therefore it is Conceded by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the said defendant Twenty Pounds nine^{teen} Shillings, the said defendant to give with his damages after six in form aforesaid and he has been told by him about his debt in this behalf exposed to be liable of the goods and chattels of the account in the hands of the defendant to be admitted, if so much thereof he hath, but if not, then the debt aforesaid to be liable of his own proper goods and chattels, and the said Defendant in money &c.
But this judgment is to be discharged by the payment of Ten Pounds nine Shillings and six pence with interest thereon to be computed after the rate of six per centum per annum from the Twentieth day of January 1797 untill the time of Payment, and the costs
