

Richard Henry Mathew, executor of John Browne deceased. ... At agt
 Benjamin Bowley Baker administrator of William Hooper and Deft } In alt-

bot - - - $8.95
 1/2 p. 1/2

This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the defendants acknowledged his Plea of debts of Superior dignity and fully administrators, and therefore came also a Jury to wit: Alex. and Wm. Nichols, Joseph B. Blizard, Branch M. Buell, James Foster, Henry Melish, Henry B. Naughton, John L. Chapman, William L. Daugherty, Henry Johnson, Matthew Calvert, James Pierce and Henry Bailey who being called true and sworn the Court to speak upon the issue made upon the other Plea of Payment by indultate, brought into Court a Verdict in the words following to wit: "We of the Jury find for the Plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and upon this award is one penny" Therefore it is ordered by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendants fourteen pounds three shillings and two pence the debt of the defendants with his damages aforesaid and interest aforesaid and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expenses to be allowed of the goods and chattels of the defendants in the hands of the defendants to be returned to so much thereof he hath, but if not then the Court awards to be returned of his own proper goods and chattels and also said damages and interest aforesaid and his damages to be discharged by the payment of twenty pounds and shillings and pence subject to the following Order to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the first day of March 1814 until the time of Payment, and the costs and damages aforesaid

Henry Melish and Joseph his wife ... At agt } In defendant

bot - - - $8.95
 1/2 p. 1/2

Benjamin Cobb who was jointly bound with a certain George Palmer Deft
 This day came the Parties by their attorneys and therefore came also a Jury to wit: Alexander Cleghorn, Joseph B. Blizard, Branch M. Buell, James Foster, Michael Hollander, Henry B. Naughton, John L. Chapman, William L. Daugherty, Henry Johnson, Matthew Calvert, James Pierce, and William Lawrence, who being called true and sworn the Court to speak upon the issue made upon the other Plea of Payment by indultate, brought into Court a Verdict in the words following to wit: "We of the Jury find for the Plaintiff and upon this award is one penny" Therefore it is ordered by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendants one hundred and twenty two pounds three shillings and two pence the debt of the defendants with his damages aforesaid and interest aforesaid and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expenses to be allowed of the goods and chattels of the defendants in the hands of the defendants to be returned to so much thereof he hath, but if not then the Court awards to be returned of his own proper goods and chattels and also said damages and interest aforesaid and his damages to be discharged by the payment of twenty pounds and shillings and pence subject to the following Order to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the first day of March 1814 until the time of Payment, and the costs and damages aforesaid

Richard Blunt administrator of Matthew Rapp deceased ... At agt } In Trust

Elizabeth Rapp
 This day came the Parties by their attorneys and the defendants and the Plaintiff acknowledged his Plea of debts of Superior dignity and fully administrators, and therefore came also a Jury to wit: Alex. and Wm. Nichols, Joseph B. Blizard, Branch M. Buell, James Foster, Henry Melish, Henry B. Naughton, John L. Chapman, William L. Daugherty, Henry Johnson, Matthew Calvert, James Pierce and Henry Bailey who being called true and sworn the Court to speak upon the issue made upon the other Plea of Payment by indultate, brought into Court a Verdict in the words following to wit: "We of the Jury find for the Plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and upon this award is one penny" Therefore it is ordered by the Court that the Plaintiff recover against the defendants fourteen pounds three shillings and two pence the debt of the defendants with his damages aforesaid and interest aforesaid and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expenses to be allowed of the goods and chattels of the defendants in the hands of the defendants to be returned to so much thereof he hath, but if not then the Court awards to be returned of his own proper goods and chattels and also said damages and interest aforesaid and his damages to be discharged by the payment of twenty pounds and shillings and pence subject to the following Order to be computed after the rate of Six per centum per annum from the first day of March 1814 until the time of Payment, and the costs and damages aforesaid