" Jeph's Island, Joseph's Island, David Keusum and Brunelle Manfee good and Lawful " men aforesaid, being duly sworn as the law directs, do say that the line in dispute
" between Edmund Turner and Jacob Turner both of the County of Southampton and
" Parish of Saint Luke is as follows (to wit, Beginning - a short gun in the mill
" branch in John Reed's line running thence North fifty degrees East 78 Poles to where was

The Jury Summoned in pursuance of an order of Court of this County this day returned a Survey and report, relative to the bounds of the land between James Scammell and Army Hunt in the words and figures following to wit, "Southampton County to wit,
" Inquisition Inserted and Taken in the County of Southampton and Parish of Mottoway
" this 25th day of July 1816 by Rowan Butts deputy of Henry Biggs Sheriff of the " County aforesaid, and upon the oaths of Goodrich Will, John Turner, River Barker
" Ethelred Kitchen, John Foster, Thomas Saunders, Frederick Felt, Edwin Davis, Peter
" Pierce, George Hobbs, John Butts and Samuel B. Hines, good and Lawful men
" of this County, who being charged and sworn before James Jones a Justice of the " Peace for the County aforesaid to inquire into and run out the disputed line between
" James Scammell and Army Hunt being attended with the County Surveyors upon their
" oaths do say that they attended on the Premises of the line in dispute on the day above
" mentioned agreeable to the Summons of the Sheriff and find after a fair examination
" that we could not establish the said line for several reasons 1st One Part of the " disputed lands lying in Supex County and the other part lying in Southampton
" We consider that agreeable to Law the Sheriff of Supex County ought to have attended
" the Jury in the 2nd Place we find that the report of the Precipious Master
" not to inform the Court of Southampton as it respects the lands lying in the said County
" of Supex, so as for them to make their order authorizing a Summons to the Sheriff
" of Supex, therefore he did not attend, 3rdly the Jury do say that the Plaintiff being
" ready to produce her title papers and express her willingness to run the disputed line
" according to the will of her deceased husband but Mr. Scammell the defendant
" refused to run any other way but agreeable to the will of Thomas Humes and
" In consequence of which we the Jury do say that James Scammell and Army
" Hunt pay the Present costs, one pay half and the other party one half. Botolph
