

John Barr and Mary Ann his wife late Mary Ann Evans, who was widow and relict of Wm Evans decd and William T. Evans an infant son of William Evans decd by John Masdell his next friend against

Complainants

Richard & William Executors of William Evans decd. Defendants

In Chancery

This Cause was this day docketed by Consent of the Parties, and after of the Court, came on to be heard, upon the bill of the Complainants, answers of the defendant exhibits and arguments of Council thereupon &c. and upon due consideration thereof has, the Court, doth adjudge, order and decree, that Collin Kitchen, Henry Hurley, William & Daughtrey, Benjamin Devaney and John Masdell, or any three of them lay off and allot to the said Mary Ann Barr late Mary Ann Evans one equal part of the slaves belonging to the estate of William Evans decd agreeable to the will of the said William Evans deceased. Also that they the said Complainants lay off one moiety of the residue of the said slaves being the portion under the said Wm Evans will intended for his son Benjamin W. Evans who is now dead, and make division thereof equally between her the said Mary Ann Barr and William T. Evans son of the said William Evans decd agreeable to the act of assembly concerning distributions of intestate estates, and further that the said Complainants in order to effect the purposes of the said Wm Evans will, and a division of the other personal property exclusive of slaves of the said William Evans estate and make distribution of the same Benjamin W. Evans proportion thereof, do sell on a credit of months all the residue of the said personal estate, and make division thereof in the following manner to wit allowing to the said Mary Ann Barr, one third part thereof for life she being entitled to the same only as the will of her decd Husband directs, one half of the residue to be equally divided between her the said Mary Ann Barr and William T. Evans her son, being sums acquired by them, on the death of Benjamin W. Evans intestate and the other remaining third part as also the other slaves being one third part of the whole, and monies to be retained by her the said Mary Ann Barr until the said Wm T. Evans shall arrive to the age of sixteen years and then to be given up to the said William T.
Evans or to his guardians, according to the provisions of the aforesaid will, and make report of their proceedings to this Court in order to a final decree —

A List of conveyances proved and acknowledged in the clerk's office and certified by two Justices of the Peace, since the last Court and admitted to record, in pursuance of an act of assembly in such cases made and provided —

An instrument of bargain and sale between James Wilson and Martha his wife of the first Part and Jonathan Luter of the other part, having been proved in the Clerk's office by the oaths of John Johnson, Matthew Soyner and Anthony Mills three of the witnesses thereto and admitted to record, as to the said James, was this day admitted upon the proceedings thereof. In pursuance of an act of assembly in such cases made and provided —