In Chancery
Defendants

This cause was this day docketed by consent of parties and assent of the Court and was heard on the bill, answer and arguments of Counsel, whereupon and after due consideration thereof had the Court with judges, order and decree that Nicholas S Williams, John Williams, Daniel Butts and Robert Nicholson or any three of them do set apart one third of the slaves in value (exclusive of such as are now in dispute between Eli Cooper and wife & John Clapper and wife and Henry Briggs administrator de bonis non of John James) whereof John James dec'd possessed to the defendant Nancy James for and during the term of her natural life, provided she first execute to the said Henry Briggs, Administrator as aforesaid a refunding bond with security in case he should acquire the same. It is further ordered that the before named persons or any two of them do ascertain if the said John James in his lifetime made any advancements of personal chattels to any of his children and to which of them, in case any advancements should have been made the value thereof is to be ascertained by estimating the property as it was by the present price of such property. It is further decreed and ordered that the aforesaid persons or any two of them do divide the balance of the slaves which may remain after the allotment made to the widow into six equal parts and allot to each of the children of said John James one sixth part, reserving the parts to be allotted to each of the said children who have been advanced, the amount of their respective advancements, and adding the same to the other portions. It is further decreed and ordered that the remaining sixth part be subdivided in kind provided it be practicable into four equal parts and allot one equal fourth part to each of the infant complainants and the remaining fourth part be divided again into four equal parts, one of which to be allotted to each of the complainants and the remainder to the defendants William B Barnard and his wife, and in case it should not be practicable to effect a division in kind of the sixth part aforesaid among the children of the said Robert James or the one fourth of the said sixth part among them and their mother then the said persons or any two of them after giving reasonable public notice of the time and place of sale shall expose the same to public sale on
