Elizabeth Myzell late of the parish of Nottoway in the County of Southampton who stands convicted of petit larceny was again led to the bar in custody of the Sheriff into whose custody she was heretofore committed, and thereupon it being seen asked of her if any thing for herself she had or knew to say why the Court here should not proceed to pronounce judgment against her according to Law, and nothing being offered or alleged in delay of judgment. It is considered by the Court that the said Eliza Myzell be imprisoned in the public Jail and Penitentiary house of this Court namely for the term of nine or nine months the period by the Jury in their verdict ascertained and that she be kept in a solitary cell in the said Jail and Penitentiary house on low and coarse diet for the space of one fourth part of the said term of nine months. And it is ordered that the Sheriff as soon as possible after the adjournment of this Court convey the said Eliza Myzell to the said Jail and Penitentiary house. And the Court doth certify that on the
