

227

At a Court held for the County of Southampton the nineteenth day of February 1821.

Present Jacob Darden, Elias Dummerell
William Bugg, Thomas D. Mayenberg } Just.

Ordered that the Indenture binding Henry Duntin alias Lane to Colthrop Pond be transferred to Patrick Pond administrator of the said Colthrop Pond. &c.

An Indenture of bargain and sale from John Williams to Joseph Duntin having been proved on the 20th February 1814 by two of the witnesses thereto and Drury the other subscribing witness thereto being dead, John Drury being sworn deponent and oath that he is acquainted with the hand writing of the said Drury Drury & verily believes that the name of the said Drury Drury is the said Drury Drury to be in the proper hand writing of the said Drury Drury. Whereupon the said Decree is ordered to be recorded -

William H. Nicholson is by George Rines Sheriff of this County appointed his Deputy during pleasure, and the Court being of opinion that the said Nicholson is a man of honesty, probity and good demeanor, he took the several oaths prescribed by Law.

John Story and Melly his wife late Schuser. Plaintiffs }
against } In Chancery
Phoebe Schuser Defendants

This day came the parties by their Counsel and the Commissioners appointed to make division of the land in the proceedings mentioned this day made the following report to wit: "Agreeable to a decree of the County Court of Southampton to us directed bearing date Trm. Court 1812 the undersigned have gone on the lands of John Schuser dec. attended by the County Surveyor as by the order we were required and found there to be acres - the then proceeds to make a division agreeable to quality as well as quantity in manner and form following to wit: We have in the first place set apart to the Complainant John Story & Melly his wife late Melly Schuser One half of the said lands which was 113 acres as by the decree directed as her full proportionable part of the said lands, also the other half which was 113 acres to the Defendant Phoebe Schuser as her full proportionable part of the said lands. Given under our hands this 10th day of January 1821 - William Newton, Henry Porter, Joseph D. Beale." Whereupon by consent of the parties by their Attorneys it is agreed and ordered that the report offered in form aforesaid made be confirmed and the said proportionally come between the parties -

For reasons appearing to the Court it is ordered that the Commissioners who viewed the Commission and recommendations of opening a road from Arthur Williams's Store to Tolly Shop have leave to amend their report.

John Humbley, Thomas Humbley, Malinda Humbley and Nancy Humbley a minor by her next friend Thomas Humbley. Plaintiffs }
against } In Chancery
Mary Humbley Defendant

This day came the parties by their Attorneys and the Commissioners appointed to divide the slaves in the proceedings mentioned this day made the following report to wit: "In conformity to the annexed decree the undersigned Commissioners did meet on the 26th day December 1820 and divide the negroes belonging to the estate of James Humbley dec. in the following manner: Court. Dames valued at 1000. Mary at