In Debt

Henry Briggs assignor with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec.

This day came the parties by their attorneys and on the motion of the defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded debts of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally, and thereupon issue being joined between the parties came a jury to wit, James Milliken, Lewis Morrill, John Barratt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Jory to wit, James Milliken, Lewis Morrill, John Barratt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Jory, Benjamin Clements, David Jeffries, James Bell, George W. Lorr, William Mayler, William Blom & John Martin who being elected true and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned a verdict in these words to wit, "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered, we further find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiff's demand." Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the sum of fifty seven dollars and thirty nine cents with legal interest thereon from the 15th day of September 1814 till paid the debt in the declaration mentioned and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec. which may hereafter come into the hands of the defendant to be administered, and which may remain after all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiff's demand. And the said defendant in mercy &c.
