

from the 29th day of December 1816 till paid the debt in the declaration mentioned together with the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow and which may hereafter come to the hands of the said defendant to be administered, and what may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim.

Robert Bellings Guardian of Jacob Broadshaw.

Plff
In Debt
Dft

against
Henry Briggs Adm'r with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec'd

This day came the parties by their Attornies and on the motion of the defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded Debt of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered, and that there are debts of superior dignity which have come to his hands to be administered, and that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the said defendant the sum of forty seven dollars and fourteen cents with legal interest thereon from the 31st day of December 1816 till paid the debt in the declaration mentioned together with the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered, & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

John Foster for the benefit of Mary Cobb Exec of John Simmons dec'd

Plff
In Debt
Dft

against
Henry Briggs Adm'r with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec'd

This day came the parties by their Attornies and on the motion of the Defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded Debt of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in these words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We further find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c. This judgment is to be executed for $46.98 cents paid Nov^r 15th 1806 for $2.50 paid September 15th 1805

Dorothy Waller Adm'r of James Miller dec'd for Colonel Lewis

Plff
In Debt
Dft

against
Henry Briggs Adm'r with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec'd

This day came the parties by their Attornies and on the motion of the defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded debts of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally, and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, George Blunt, William Moler, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

"We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

Richard E. Williams

Cosls $7.92.

Edmund Lewis who was allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded Debt of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

William B. Gooding

against
Henry Briggs Adm'r with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec'd

This day came the parties by their Attornies and on the motion of the Defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded Debt of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.

Thomas Appleby

against
Henry Briggs Adm'r with the will annexed of John Cricklow dec'd

This day came the parties by their Attornies and on the motion of the Defendant he is allowed further to plead and thereupon he pleaded debts of superior dignity to which the plaintiff replied generally, and upon being joined came a Jury to wit James Mellickin, Lewis Morrill, John Barnatt, Micajah Holliman, Matthew Calvert, Benjamin Clements, Davis Jeffries, James Bell, George Blunt, William Moler, William Blon & John Martin who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issues joined returned verdict in the following words to wit "We the Jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent. We also find that the defendant hath fully administered all the assets of his testator which have come to his hands to be administered and also find that there are debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs demand." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the sum of Eight pounds with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of January 1806 till paid and the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. To be levied of the goods and chattels of the said John Cricklow dec'd which may hereafter come to the hands of the defendant to be administered & which may remain after satisfying all debts of superior dignity to the plaintiffs claim. And the said defendant in Mercy &c.