

against the appellant the 20th day of February 1819 for $17.50 cents subject to a credit of $1.50. and $1.18 cents costs.

This day came the parties by their Attornies who being fully heard and the evidence reviewed maturely considered it seems to the Court here that the said Judgment is erroneous in that that the appellee could not maintain his action against the appellant he not having qualified as administrator of his intestate in this State. Therefore it is considered that the same be reversed and annulled and that the appellant recover against the appellee his costs by him expended in the prosecution of his appeal aforesaid here. and this Court promising to give such judgment as the said Justice ought to have given it is further considered that the appellees action be dismissed and that the appellant recover against the appellee his costs by him in his defence before the said Justice expended.
