This day came as well the plaintiff by his attorney as Richard Williams appearance bail for the defendants by his attorney and thereupon came a jury to wit John D. Bowers, John Harris, Edwin Lewis, Henry J. Magot, Claiborne W. Lamm, John M. Gurley, Joseph Reese, Matthias Williams, James Stephenson, George A. Gray, John Lamm, and James Milliken who being elected true and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined, upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit: "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debt in the declaration mentioned and assess his damages to one cent." Therefore it is considered by the court that the plaintiff recover against the defendants and the said Richard Williams appearance bail as aforesaid the sum of forty dollars and sixteen cents with legal interest thereon from the 7th day of June 1821 till paid, the debt in the declaration mentioned together with the one cent damages aforesaid in form aforesaid assessed and his costs by him about his suit in this behalf expended. And the said defendants in mercy &c.
