whereon the said J. Gilliam died and called the high land tract containing one hundred and sixty two acres as well more fully appear by a plat hereto annexed it being the one third part of all the lands which J. Gilliam died possessed during her natural life. Also the following shows as her dower to wit. Ben (a cooper) Snider, Jacob, Rufus, John Patt, Pleasant, Elizabeth, Ephraim, Sifer, Hizzy, & Polly to have and to hold during her natural life. Also the one third part of the one fourth of the tract of land or money which James Harris died on. Given under our hands this 12th day of November 1821. The reason we did not lay off the 1/3 in the fourth was because James Harris left it to be sold or divided as his children should agree on. J. Myrick, Arthur Williamson.
