A motion upon a bond taken for the forthcoming of property at the day of sale.

This day came the plaintiff by his attorney and it appearing to the Court that the defendant hath had legal notice of this motion he was solemnly called but came not. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff may have execution against the defendant for one hundred and sixty four dollars and twenty four cents the penalty of the said bond and his costs by him in this behalf expended. And the said defendant in mercy &c.

But this execution may be discharged by the payment of eighty two dollars and twelve cents with legal interest thereon from the 18th day of December 1822 till paid and the costs.
