of Benjamin Edwards dec'd and administrator with the will annexed of Richard Edwards dec'd.
Defendant

In Chancery
D

On the motion of the plaintiffs it is ordered that an attachment be awarded against the defendant Benjamin Blunt for his contempt in failing to submit his papers and vouchers as administrator as aforesaid to the Master Commissioner of this Court pursuant to an interlocutory decree heretofore pronounced in this cause under which attachment the Sheriff is directed to have the body of the said Blunt here present in Court at the next Court to answer in his proper person for such his said contempt But the attachment aforesaid is to be void and of no effect upon the said Blunt surrendering his said vouchers under the said decree before the said Commissioner and answering on oath before the said Commissioner such questions as the said Commissioner may deem necessary and proper in relation to said suit.
