

Edisto Williams, Russell Williams, Lewis Branch, John Davis and Thomas Lawrence, who being sworn diligently to enquire of damages in this suit, upon their oath returned a verdict in the following words to wit: "We the jury find for the plaintiff the debts respectively mentioned in the recognizance to be due from the debts." Therefore it is considered by the Court that James Pleasant Jr. Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia for the use of the said Commonwealth may have execution against the goods and chattels lands and tenements of the said defendants for the sum of fifty dollars each in the writ aforesaid specified according to the form and effect of their recognizance therein mentioned. And also that the said James Pleasant Jr. Governor as aforesaid for the use of the said Commonwealth recover against the said defendants the costs expended in suing forth and prosecuting this writ. And the said Defendants in Mercy &c.

Nicholas alias Nicholas Faircloth and Henry Robertson who severally stand charged with committing a rape on the body of Nancy Vick, were this day again set to the back by the Sheriff of this County into whose custody they were heretofore committed, and charged with the offence aforesaid, and for reasons appearing to the Court it is ordered that the examination of the said Faircloth and Robertson be continued till tomorrow.

Be it remembered that Nancy Vick here in Court acknowledged herself indebted to his excellency James Pleasant Esq.
