David I Boykin as executor of Daniel Boykin dec^d and as administrator of John Boykin dec^d

In Chancery

This cause this day came on to be heard by consent of parties on the bill answer and exhibits filed, and the Court, on due consideration doth order and decree that Master Commissioner Cobb audit state and settle an account of the transactions of the said David I Boykin as executor of Daniel Boykin deceased and ascertain the balance of any, now in hand due the said estate. That the said Commissioner then divide the balance between the complainants Harwell and wife in right of the said wife under the will of the said Testator and the defendant as administrator of John Boykin deceased by allotting to the latter the sum specifically bequeathed to the said John in the said will (unless the said Executorial account shall show that it has heretofore been turned over to the estate of the said John) and then divide the residue into three equal parts under the last clause in the said will, allotting one to the administrator of the said John Boykin deceased and one to the complainant Harwell & wife. That he then allot one third of the remaining share being that to which Daniel Boykin the younger would have been entitled had he survived the said Testator, to the said Harwell and wife, and the other two thirds to the said administrator account to this Court in
