George Blaw trustee for Henry Smith & children this day gave bond & security according to said The account current of McCommissaries report of Edw^d M. Jones & Mary his wife late Mary Butts late widow of James Butts ac^t adm^r on said James Butts, estate and questions thereto. This day came on for consideration, and the court having examined carefully, in of opinion that the principles affirmed by the commissaries are correct, and therefore the court doth confirm the same, it appearing to the court that $172.51 with interest from the 1st January 1826 being the difference between the balance stated as due James Butts, estate on one hand and the charges on the other for the board and clothing of the intestates orphan before the qualification of any guardian, is now due from those orphans in the proportion stated on the account to the representatives of the said Edward M. Jones - and that at the calling of this cause, Sam^l Bonham guardian to the orphan of James Butts ac^t appeared in court and made oath to the absence of material witness one of whom had been summoned, and the other having been absent from the country for some months, had lately returned, and had not been able from indisposition to reach here, & moved the court to continue the cause until the next court, protesting against the disposition of the cause, until he could have the attendance of the witnesses
