This day came the parties by their Counsel and the Commissioner appointed by an interlocutory decree made in this cause at June Court last this day made their report in the following words and figures to wit: "In obedience to an interlocutory decree 'Gardner and others against Gardner' pronounced at June Term 1835, by the County Court of Southampton, and heretofore entered your Commissioner having advertised the time and place of sale of the tract of land in the bill mentioned by three several advertisements other than the one which was posted up at the door of the Courthouse of said County, all of which were posted up at least thirty days previous to the day of sale, proceeded on Saturday the 25th day of July 1835, in the premises and sold the same to the highest bidder as by said decree directed, when Harry Croft became the last bidder and purchaser
