

Prison William A. Spickard

Between Shepley of this County, who stands committed to the jail of this County, charged with feloniously stealing taking and carrying away on the 17th day of February last three barrels of pork from the meat house of Greary Deal of this County, was this day set to the bar in custody of the jail of this County (the court summoning for his examination having failed to meet) and thereupon Greary Deal was sworn and examined and the prisoner, by his Counsel, fully answered. The Court upon all the circumstances of the case are of opinion that the prisoner ought to be tried for the said supposed offence at the next Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery to be held for this County, and thereupon the prisoner is remanded to jail.

Be it remembered that Greary Deal here in Court acknowledged himself to be indebted to William M. Taylor, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, in the just and full sum of one hundred dollars of his goods and chattels, lands & tenements to be levied and to the said Governor and his executors for the use of the Commonwealth's service. But upon this condition that if the said Greary Deal shall make his personal appearance before the Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for this County on the first day of the next term and give such evidence as he knows on behalf of the Commonwealth against Peaslee Shepley who stands charged with Larceny and shall not depart thence without leave of the said Court then the above recognizance to be void.
