This day came the parties by their attorneys and thereupon came a jury, to wit, William Davis, John L. Turner, James G. Newson, William Harrison, Henry Blou, John M. Davis, William T. Blou, Thomas Brown, Robert M. Hart, William Griffin, John Milson and James Story who being elected tried and sworn the truth to speak upon the issue joined, upon their oath returned a verdict in these words. "We the jury find for the plaintiff the sum of forty three dollars & 50 cents with int. from the 10th July 1833 till paid." Therefore it is considered by the Court that the plaintiff recover against the defendant the said sum of forty three dollars and fifty cents with legal interest thereon from the 10th day of July 1833 till paid, and the cost by him in this behalf expended, to be paid of the goods and chattels of the decedent in the hands of the defendant to be administered. And the said defendant in mercy &c.
